

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY (FINANCIAL CRIMINOLOGY) - AR952
DURATION OF STUDY: 4 YEARS / 8 SEMESTERS
(INTAKE : MARCH & OCTOBER)

Synopsis

This research program is designed to provide a progressive, rigorous and stimulating framework of study that will equip students with knowledge and the necessary research skills in financial criminology. Due to heightened awareness and intolerance of fraudulent activities, demand for experts in financial criminology is rapidly increasing. The research program will help students understand the need for a holistic approach in applying the investigatory models. It will also guide students to appreciate and understand the wide variety of financial crimes and the development of the related regulatory framework, the crime control statutes and the theoretical aspects of financial criminology. Ultimately, the research program will prepare students to become competent practitioners or researchers with a firm grounding in Financial Criminology, fostering research and the development of new knowledge in specific areas.
