

“

Learning Activities Amid COVID-19 Outbreak

”

GUIDELINES FOR LEARNING AND ASSESSMENT

18th March - 12th April 2020

Students remain wherever they are
- at home or on campus.

No formal learning sessions from 18th March to 12th April 2020

Students are on their MID SEMESTER
BREAK from the 1st till the 12th April

Students study on their own and continue working on their tasks

Draw up a self directed learning
plan

Look at all schemes of work, and expected outcomes

Read textbooks and references

Use materials on uFuture and/or iLearn

Explore all other online resources

Open educational resources
(OER)
MOOC

Start
working on the assignments/tasks given earlier

Throughout the semester

Students engage in self reflection

Change your perspective as a learner

Start developing a proactive, and responsible approach to learning - be self directed Build effective teams (3-4 members) for the purpose of discussion and revision via online or at a distant

Be in touch with your lecturers (constantly) for learning support and assistance

Post 12th April

Online learning commences starting 13th April 2020.
Lecturers will explain how the course will be conducted.

Students having no or low internet access will study via distance learning

Students defer/drop on lab/workshop/studio/ kitchen / field based courses that cannot be conducted online

Learning materials of various forms will be provided to students

Online and/or distance learning continues throughout the semester

Learning assessments will be conducted online and at a distant

Students study with honesty and integrity to achieve a blessed and meaningful semester

This information is subject to change due current circumstances

ALL STUDENTS ARE REQUESTED TO STAY SAFE AND BE AWARE OF THE LATEST UPDATES.

Browse : <https://www.facebook.com/UiTM.Student.Portal/>